

Composition of modelled risk by province

Percentage of each province's total SHAP magnitude attributable to each predictor, from the single national gradient-boosting model. The columns are close to identical: the determinants of child death act nationally, not province by province.

